Our 2020 Keynote Speakers:

Karith Foster

For nearly a decade Karith Foster has taken her passion for entertaining and critical thinking nationwide: creating a seismic shift in mindsets when addressing issues of diversity and inclusion. The former co-host of controversial radio personality Don Imus and former Fortune 500 human resources executive administrator brings the perfect blend of knowledge and experience when conveying the ever-present need to address diversity. Karith leaves her audience feeling inspired and encouraged to commit to the journey of mutual respect, acceptance and a greater sense of belonging.

Tracy Butz

Tracy Butz is one of the most in-demand and top-rated female speakers in North America today because of her ability to inspire and influence positive behavior change. Tracy is focused on helping organizations and individuals energize workplace culture, enhance employee engagement and empower high performance. Her experience includes serving as a former director of learning and development where Tracy was accountable for talent management and employee development and parlayed her career to become an expert on workplace culture.
